With multiple buildings sharing common infrastructure such as water, power and air conditioning required high level of plan utilisation and networking to achieve a cost effective and energy efficient systems that meet the performance needs of stakeholders.

This project had a challenging brief with several key stakeholders. ADG was able to translate the brief into an effective design of systems and infrastructure successfully, handing over to the NT Government and Stakeholders on completion.